BOOK EXCERPT

Chapter 1: In the Beginning

"In order to protect Adam and Eve, God gave them His Word. The two of them were not ignorant. As long as they obeyed and did not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, they would triumph over their adversary.

Chapter 2: There's A Snake in the Garden

"Satan has nothing else to lose. He's already lost everything. He comes as a son of the morning, pretending to be an angel of light (2 Cor. 11:14), but he's full of darkness. Nothing about him is good. The entirety of his mission is to steal, kill and destroy the very creature made in God's image and likeness - humanity (John 10:10a). He doesn't want us to walk in our identity as children of God. He doesn't want us to exercise our authority in the earth. Instead, he wants us to do what he did - trade the truth for lies."

Chapter 3: The Fall

"Adam received a direct word from God, but now he looks at the woman he loves, and nothing seems to have happened to her, and eats the fruit.

It's dangerous to base your decision on whether or not to obey God, on the consequences or lack thereof someone else has faced."

Chapter 4: The Consequences of Sin

"The adversary plan appeared to have worked.

Satan: He and the fallen angels were kicked out of heaven.
Adam and Eve: They were kicked out of the Garden of Eden.

Satan: He lost his position and authority in Heaven.
Adam and Eve: They lost their position and forfeited their dominion in the earth.

Satan: He has no recourse for redemption...What the adversary didn't see coming was God's plan of salvation to reconcile man back to Himself. What he thought was their end, set the stage for a new beginning through Christ Jesus."

I thank God for Ms. Walker. I saw the deceptive tactics of the enemy and how he continues to use his tactics against humanity. God wants to restore man back to his rightful place.

Know the recourse of sin, God has already made a way of escape. Satan doesn't want to see you Win, but we will if we stay in Christ. This book is great for all ages.

WHAT ARE PEOPLE SAYING

Carol Patterson

I love this book! Over the decades, I've read hundreds of books by Christian authors. This is one of the best. This book is such an easy read, but so revelatory! I've never seen a book this thorough that covers such a deep subject. I recently heard someone share on the restoration of the Edenic covenant, what we lost in the Garden of Eden. This book makes the restoration of man through Jesus Christ so simple to understand. This is a book to keep and refer back to.

The End to Our Beginning Carries Readers Back to the Garden of Eden, the Epicenter of Man's Fall

The End to Our Beginning offers a fresh perspective on the redemptive work of Christ and His mission to restore what was lost in the Garden of Eden.

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, October 4, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Humanity could not have envisioned a more perfect place to dwell than the Garden of Eden. Adam and Eve had everything they needed to thrive from flowing rivers, an abundance of vegetation, vibrant pastures, and more. They lived in complete harmony with God and nature until deception entered the Garden. An unsuspecting Eve would come face to face with a formidable foe and life as humanity had known it would come to an abrupt end.

deceive man. From there, Chawanda brings the reader full circle to Jesus' work to redeem mankind and restore what was lost in the Garden. This book reveals God's love for humanity, exposes the devices of the adversary, provides moments for personal reflection, and ultimately conveys a message of hope for redemption and restoration through Jesus.

Reflecting on his own downfall, the adversary underestimated God's love for humanity and wrongly assumed that man would suffer the same fate - eternal judgment without hope for redemption or forgiveness of sins. What the adversary didn't see coming was God's plan of salvation to reconcile man back to Himself. What He thought would be man's end, set the stage for a new beginning through Christ Jesus.
